

Kings and Queens 5: Dynastic Loyalties

April 8-9, 2016

Clemson University, Greenville SC

Friday, April 8

Registration: 8:15 - ongoing

5th Floor Atrium, Clemson ONE building, 1 North Main St, Greenville SC

Session 1: 9:00-10:30

Panel 1

Civic Loyalty

Chair: Elizabeth Carney (Clemson University)

- Sarah Betts (University of York), Loyal Dukes and Faithful Cities: Constructing Loyalty and the Memory of English Civil War Royalism
- Dolores Mirón Pérez (University of Granada), The Queen's Agency in Dynastic and Political Loyalty: The Case of Apollonis of Pergamon
- Monica D'Agostini (Catholic University of the Sacred Heart, Milan), All the Queen's Men: Civic Loyalty to Royal Women in the Seleukid Empire

Panel 2

Women Rulers and Regents

Chair: Brandon Turner (Clemson University)

- Kathy Krause (University of Missouri – Kansas City), Lessons in Dynastic Loyalty: The Roman de la Violette and the Capetians
- Charles Beem (University of North Carolina – Pembroke), Dynastic Loyalty and the 'Queenships' of Mary Queen of Scots
- Caitlin Brady (University of Colorado at Boulder), Where the Loyalties Lie: The Tangled Web Between Mariana of Austria, Don Juan of Austria, and Carlos II of Spain

Panel 3

Authors and Loyalty

Chair: Caroline Dunn (Clemson University)

- Heta Aali (University of Turku, Finland), French Historians' Loyalty and Disloyalty to the French Monarchy between 1815 and 1848
- Andrea Nichols (University of Nebraska-Lincoln), 'complete dissimulation but a true picture of...women': Readers' Study of Queens in English Histories
- Valerie Schutte (Independent Scholar), Counselling a King: False Loyalty in Book Dedications to King Henry VIII

Break: 10:30-11:00

Atrium

Session 2: 11:00-12:30

Panel 1

Succession, I

Chair: Niki Incorvia (CUNY York College)

- Sheila Ager (University of Waterloo), 'The King Is (Not) Dead': Perilous Transition in Ancient Monarchies
- Lisa Balabanlilar (Rice University), Loyalty, Succession and the Restless Prince in Mughal India
- Janis Elliott (Texas Tech University), Dynastic Disloyalty: Monarchs, Murder, and Mercenaries in 14th-Century Naples

Panel 2

Propaganda and Ritual

Chair: Ellie Woodacre (University of Winchester)

- Dustin Neighbors (University of York), Loyalty, Devotion and Allegiance through Tudor Progresses: The Case of Elizabeth I
- Wendy Hitchmough (Historic Royal Palaces), Visual Propaganda and Ritual at the Early Stuart Court in England
- Timothy Jenks (East Carolina University), Royal Illuminations in Britain's Age of Revolution

Lunch: 12:30-1:40

Box lunch provided for conference participants in Atrium

Conference Photo:1:45

Please meet outside in piazza (if sunny) or gather in atrium (if rainy) for a group photo

Session 3: 2:00-3:30

Panel 1

Succession, II

Chair: Michael Silvestri (Clemson University)

- Riccardo Bertolazzi (University of Calgary), Tangled Ever After: a Loyal Syrian Bride for the Emperor Septimius Severus
- Anne Mocko (Concordia College), Nepal's Flawed Succession of 2001: The Crisis That Doomed a Dynasty
- Waldemar Heckel (Centre for Military and Strategic Studies, Calgary), Kings and Queens, Legitimacy and Succession: A Comparative Study

Panel 2

Divided Loyalty: Royal Women Between Two Dynasties

Chair: Andy Lemons (Clemson University)

- Lois Huneycutt (University of Missouri – Columbia), 'Descended From an Ancient and Illustrious Line of Kings': Women of the House of Wessex in the Century after the Norman Conquest

- Michelle Beer (University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign), Between Kings and Emperors: Catherine of Aragon as Dynastic Mediator
- Charlotte Backerra (University of Mainz, Germany), For Empire or Dynasty? Empress Elisabeth Christine and the Brunswicks

Panel 3

Military Matters

Chair: William Greenwalt (Santa Clara University)

- Franca Landucci (Catholic University of Milan), A Case Study: Loyalty, Disloyalty and Faithlessness in the Origin of Attalids' Power
- Seth Kendall (Georgia Gwinnett College), For King and Country: Titus Livius and the Roman Art of War during the Monarchy
- Lee Wilson (Clemson University), Slavery and Subjecthood in Revolutionary-Era South Carolina

Break: 3:30-4:00

Atrium

Session 4: 4:00-5:30

Panel 1

Women at the Valois and Bourbon Courts

Chair: Charles Beem (University of North Carolina – Pembroke)

- Kelly Peebles (Clemson University), Embodied Devotion: Female Visions of Faith and Family at the Valois Court
- Tracy Adams (University of Auckland), 'Quel solide établissement!' The Loyalty of the French Royal Mistress" (Part I)
- Christine Adams (St. Mary's College of Maryland), 'Quel solide établissement!' The Loyalty of the French Royal Mistress" (Part II)

Panel 2

Interfamilial Conflict/Feud

Chair: Lee Wilson (Clemson University)

- Niki Incorvia (CUNY York College) Role Theory as an Informative Lens for Understanding the Familial and Political Power Struggles of Henry VIII and Mary I of England
- Manuela Santos Silva (Universidade de Lisboa) Loyalties and Disloyalties Concerning the Portuguese Royal Family in the Context of the 14th century's Castilian Civil War and its Aftermath
- Zita Rohr (The University of Sydney) 'Dissing' Loyalty during the 'Absences' of Charles VI of France (1392-1422)

Welcome Reception, 6:00-8:00 - Atrium

Heavy hors d'oeuvres to be provided which should suffice for many as a light dinner.

If you wish to eat dinner at one of the nicer restaurants on Main St afterwards, we suggest you make a reservation (reservations suggested for Saturday also)

Saturday, April 9

Session 5: 9:00-10:30

Panel 1

“Good” and “Bad” Rulers

Chair: Caroline Dunn (Clemson University)

- Tim Howe (St. Olaf College), The “Good” Poros and the “Bad” Poros: Kingship and Conceptions of Loyalty and Treachery in the Alexander Historiography.
- Jordan Slavik (University of Maryland) Philip V and Roman Society: Polybius’ Parallel of Decline
- Catherine Harrison (University of Bangor School of England) Richard III: Loyauté me Lie? (Loyalty Binds Me?)

Panel 2

Looking Backwards: Memorialization and Interpretations

Chair: Steve Marks (Clemson University)

- William Greenwalt (Santa Clara University) Argead Charisma and Loyalty
- Olga Posazhennikova (Texas Tech University) Seeking Loyalty after Death: Construction of Memory by the Angevin Dynasty at Santa Chiara’s presbytery in Naples during the First Half of the Fourteenth Century
- Janice North (University of Arkansas) Three Queens for the Same Throne: Politics, Sex, and Disorder in Televisión Española’s Isabel

Panel 3

Loyalty to the Dynasty?

Chair: James Burns (Clemson University)

- Dustin Cranford (University of Maryland), The Paragon of his Forebears: Ancus Marcius and the Culmination of Rome’s First Three Kings and the End of the Romulus Cycle
- Karl Alvestad (University of Winchester), ‘In protection of our own interests we rebel’: Rebellion and Loyalty in Early Medieval Norway
- Jeanne Provost (Furman University), Dynastic Undead: Cauldron Warriors and Cultural Assimilation in the Welsh Mabinogion

Break: 10:30-11:00

Atrium

Session 6: 11:00-12:30

Panel 1

Women and Disloyalty

Chair: Waldemar Heckel (Centre for Military and Strategic Studies, Calgary)

- Walter Penrose Jr. (San Diego State University) Dis/loyalty among Mothers, Sons, and Full Siblings: “Metric Strife” in the Ptolemaic and Seleucid Dynasties
- John Vanderspoel (University of Calgary) Intra-familial Disloyalty within the Dynasty of Constantine

- Carolyn Day (Furman University) Disloyal Doctors: Rivalry, Agency, and the Illness of Princess Amelia

Panel 2

Popularism and Imagery, I

Chair: Elizabeth Carney (Clemson University)

- Saul Cardona-Luciano (University of Maryland College Park) Caesares Gemini: Culture as Succession Propaganda in Augustan Rome
- Hyunjin Cho (Boston University) Claiming Legitimacy as the Last Traditional Monarch of Iran: Qajar Postage Stamps of Nasir al-Din Shah, 1868-1896
- Stephanie Barczewski (Clemson University) A Tale of Two Images: The Making of the Modern British Monarchy

Panel 3

Religion and Loyalty (Faith and Faithlessness)

Chair: Emily Wood (Clemson University)

- Edward Holt (Saint Louis University) 'Betrayed so vilely: ' Castilian reactions to the deposition of Sancho II of Portugal
- Elizabeth Keohane-Burbridge (Fordham University) Whom Does It Serve? Late Medieval Convocation and Loyalty
- Amanda Allen (Brewton-Parker College) 'From loyal servant to disgraced Bishop: ' Stephen Gardiner and the Problem of Loyalty under Henry VIII and Edward VI

Lunch: 12:30-2:00

Please see conference information folder for recommended restaurant options

Session 7: 2:00-3:30

Panel 1

Female Loyalty and Peacemaking

Chair: Manuela Santos Silva (Universidade de Lisboa)

- Craig Hardiman (University of Waterloo) The Role of Queen Apollonis in the Creation of Dynastic Messaging and Loyalty among the Attalids of Pergamon
- Ana Maria Rodrigues (University of Lisbon) Prince Pedro: A Case of Dynastic Disloyalty in 15th Century Portugal?
- Catherine Howey Stearn (Eastern Kentucky University) Buried Loyalties: Analyzing Elizabethan Female Courtiers' Loyalty through Courtly Dress and Tomb Monuments

Panel 2

Popularism and Imagery, II

Chair: Stephanie Barczewski (Clemson University)

- Gaius Stern (University of California Berkeley) An Odious Reference: Republicans Minting Kings on Coinage
- Catherine Clifford (University of Texas Arlington) James I, the Banqueting House, and the New Politics "Republicanising" Subjects in 1620-22

- Stephanie Koscak (Wake Forest University) Panic or Pleasure? Reading Royal Secrets in the English Revolution

Panel 3

Women, Patronage, and Economics

Chair: Ana Maria Rodrigues (University of Lisbon)

- Chloë McKenzie (University of Southampton) Usurpation and Continuity: Henry IV's Ricardian 'Ladies of the Garter', 1400-1413
- René Langlois (University of Nevada Las Vegas) Dynastic Loyalty: Ottoman Survival during the Seventeenth Century Global Crisis
- Ellie Woodacre (University of Winchester) Mapping the Lands of an Acquisitive Queen: Joan of Navarre

The conference organizers extend our gratitude to the following sponsors:

Clemson College of Architecture, Arts, and Humanities

Clemson Office of the Vice-President for Research

Clemson Humanities Advancement Board

Clemson Departments of History and Political Science