

	ROOM C102	ROOM C103	Room C104	Room Q604	ROOM Q801	ROOM C101
9-10:00am	Opening Remarks/Keynote Why Study Kings and Queens in 2024? Ellie Woodacre, University of Winchester Jonathan Spangler, Manchester Metropolitan University Rooms 102/103/104
10-10:30am	COFFEE
10:30am-12pm	Gift-Giving and Communication Networks Between Castilian and English Monarchies in the Late 12th-Early 13th Century Organizer: Hélène Sirantoine	Female Networking at Early Modern Courts	Diplomatic Gifts	Unwanted Gifts	Gift-Giving in Royal Circles
	From the Royal Palace to the Cathedral, and Back: English Clerics in North Iberia and the Configuration of Discourses Around the Castilian Monarchy Amaia Arizaleta Université de Toulouse	The Emperor's Daughters: Gifts, Lineage, and Affections Across Sixteenth-Century Habsburg Europe Alicia Sempere Marín Universidad de Murcia (Spain)	New Findings on the Diplomatic Gifts of the Duke of Urbino to Philip III of Spain in 1593 Ángel Campos-Perales Universidad Nacional de Educación a Distancia	"Good God if we are discovered": Romance, Illness and Gift-Giving in the Georgian Court Carolyn A. Day, Furman University Amelia Rauser, Franklin & Marshall College	"Catamite Who Rules Alone the State": Gift-Giving and Royal Favourites at the Court of King William III Jack Beesley Manchester Metropolitan University
	Gifts from Henry II to Alfonso VIII: Marriage Alliance and Royal Communication Between England and Castile in the Late Twelfth Century José Manuel Cerda Universidad San Sebastián (Chile)	Legacies and the Public Image of Sixteenth-Century Queen Consorts Charlotte Samways University of Southampton	Diplomatic Departure Gifts of the Stuart Court (1603-1714) and the European Society of Princes Crawford Matthews University of Hull	The Bad Image of a Gift-Giver: How Afonso VI of Portugal Gifted the Wrong People, and How It Led to His Misrepresentation André Caracol Teixeira Centro de História da Universidade de Lisboa	The Gift-Giving of a Sidestepped Royal Heir: The Gifts and Court of Duke Johan of Sweden, 1600-1618 Alexander Isacson Örebro University, Sweden
	Monarchic History as Networking: Around the "Emperors of Spain" of Ralph the Black's Chronica universalis Hélène Sirantoine The University of Sydney	Gift-Giving "en miniature": Portrait Miniatures As Agents of Royal Female Networking at Early Modern European Courts Karin Schrader, Independent Scholar	Hunting Presents: Gift-Giving Hunting Equipment of the Medici Catherine Annette Lüdwig-Ockenfels Justus-Liebig-Universität, Giessen	The Presence of Toledo in a Courtly Gift: The Political Strategy of the III Marquis of Falces for the Repositioning of the Imperial City as the Head of Spain Gerardo Rappazzo Amura Universidad Nacional de Educacion a Distancia	Feliks Dobrzynski's Suite "Musical Pictures of the Twelve Nations": Reconsidering the "Imperial" in the Music Gift for Alexander II's Coronation Oksana Grigoreva and Nikita Pliushin Saint Petersburg State University
12-1pm	LUNCH
1-2:30pm	Queenship and Cross-Border Networks of Communication Cross-Border Networks of Communication: Strengthening, Memorialising, and Representing Queenship in England and Scotland from the Twelfth Century to the Present Day Organizer: Johanna Strong	Queens Mary I and Katherine Howard	Early Medieval Gift-Giving (I)	Giving Women and Female Gift-Giving	Immaterial Gifts
	The Legacy of Mary I in John Foxe's Acts and Monuments Johanna Strong University of Winchester	A 1555 German Gift Book to Queen Mary I Valerie Schutte Independent Scholar	Weapons, Gold and Relics: Norwegian Royal Gift-Giving During the Viking Age Karl Alvestad University of South-Eastern Norway	Queenly Gift-Giving and Conciliation in Medieval and Early Modern England Conor Byrne, University of Southampton	The Circulation of Goods as an Instrument of Diplomacy: From Gifts to Ideas Sofia Degli Esposti, University of Pavia
	Anna of Denmark's Queenship across Borders Amy Saunders University of Winchester	Gifts and Negative Communication: The Case of Queen Katherine Howard Michele Seah University of Newcastle, Australia	"Ego autem Anna, corde intelligens..." The Endowment of Saint-Vincent of Senlis by Queen Anna Yaroslavna of France (d. between 1075 and 1079) Talia Zajac, Niagara University	Bona Sforza's Female Network in the 16th Century: Gift Exchange, Development of Style, Building of Collections and Prestige in Light of the Correspondence With Lucrezia Borgia and Isabella d'Este Olga Hajduk Polish Academy of Sciences	Information as a Gift: Informants at the Court of Rudolf II Kateřina Pražáková University of South Bohemia, Czech Republic
	Twelfth-Century England: Two Courts and Two Queens Ashlee Johnson University of Winchester	The Power of Networks and the Networks of Power: Mary I's Gift-Giving Practice Melita Thomas University College London	Uneasy Relationships and Gifts: St Birgitta, Power and Queenly Generosity c. 1340-1373 Louise Berglund, Uppsala University	"Give and it will be given to you": The Role of the Gift in the Politics of Elisabeth Habsburg, the Wife of Casimir IV Jagiellon Beata Mozejko, University of Gdańsk	The Gift of Good Advice: Louis VII of France's Crusader Manuscript Myra M. Bom, University of Cambridge
			Queen of France in Name and Deed: Ingeborg of Denmark's Gift-Giving to the Hospitaller Order, and the Definition of Capetian Queenship Darren Henry-Noel Queen's University, Kingston, Ontario
2:30-3:00pm	COFFEE
3-4:30pm	Networks of Exchange: Gifts, Epistolary Interactions, and Cultural Transmission in Late Medieval and Early Modern Aragon and France Organizer: Zita Rohr	Gifts from the Dead	Gifting the Living	Diplomatic Gifts	Early Medieval Gift-Giving (II)
	Matha of Armagnac's "Crown Affair" (1378): Gift-Giving, and Its Political Consequences and Conflicts in the Late Medieval Crown of Aragon Alexandra Beauchamp Université de Limoges	The Power of the Testament: Unveiling Medici Women's Agency Isaac Carreon Manchester Metropolitan University	Diplomacy, Deference and Desire: Animal Gift-Giving in the Scottish Court of James VI, c.1579-1603 Nicole Cumming, University of Strathclyde and the University of Glasgow	The Magnificence of a Great Lord: John of Gaunt, Duke of Lancaster, Pretender to the Throne of Castile and His Gifts for His Family and Vassals Manuela Santos Silva Universidade de Lisboa	Queen Sancha's Gift: Sancha of León and Her Image in the Liber Diurnus of King Fernando I Mariana J. Guzman Gomez Aguado University of Missouri, Columbia

	Réseaux de cadeaux et de communication de Yolande de Bar avec le Maghreb Claire Ponsich Université de Pau/Paris I Sorbonne	Gifts From the Dead: Gift-Giving in Early Modern Royal Testaments Charlotte Backerra University of Göttingen	Gifts of Life and Death: Royal Gifts of the Living and the Dead Fabian Persson, Linnaeus University	Dépasser les rivalités et communiquer grâce au don : le rôle des cadeaux diplomatiques entre les Médicis et les Este au XVIe siècle André Rocco, Université de Liège	The Esiteroi of Agnes of France: Forming Bonds of Solidarity in 12th-Century Byzantium Erin L. Jordan Colorado State University
	Making Friends with Music and Books: Networking Political Gifts and Cultural Exchange in Late Medieval Aragon and France Zita Rohr, Macquarie University Sydney, Australia	Embodying Dynasty Through Gift-Giving and to the Very End: The Testamentary Gifts of Mariana of Austria (1634-1696) Silvia Z. Mitchell, Universidad Rey Juan Carlos/Purdue University	The Pope's Horse: The Royal Gift in the Writings of Stefano Borgia and Francesco S. Salfi (1788) Gabriella Tiganì Sava University of Malta and University of Padua	Material Necessities and Royal Patronage: John V's Donation to the Oratorians and Its Meaning for Brigantine Cultural Politics in 18th-Century Portugal Filipe Marques Fernandes Universidade de Lisboa	The Gift of Virginity in the Story of Duke Kęstutis and Birutė: Between the Epic and the Realities of 14th-Century Lithuanian Society Vytautas Jankauskas Vytautas Magnus University (Lithuania)
			Les largesses du roi-parrain en France : les cadeaux de Louis XVI à ses filleuls, entre générosité royale et système réglé Julien Muet, Sorbonne Université		Dons pendant la guerre de Cent Ans, sous le règne de Fernando 1er et de Leonor Teles Isabel de Pina Baleiras
4:30-4:45pm	BREAK
4:45-6:15pm	To Take or Not to Take: The Question of the Gift in French Courty Diplomacy / À prendre ou à laisser : la question du cadeau dans la diplomatie de cour française Organizer: John Condron	Women's Networks Through Books	Gift-Giving in Medieval England and France	Nineteenth- and Twentieth-Century Politics of Presents	Gift-Giving and Self-Fashioning
	Guardianship and Gift-Giving: The Role of Gifts in the Relationship Between John Stuart, Duke of Albany, James V of Scotland, and Catherine de' Medici Pauline van Thienen L'École des chartes	Dons et la dimension politique de la bibliothèque de Jeanne de Laval Anne-Marie Legaré Université de Lille III-Charles-de-Gaulle	A Commemorative Manuscript for Marie and a Coronation Gift from Marie Christene D'Anca University of California, Santa Barbara	Gift Exchange and International Relations in the 19th Century: Prussian Norms and Practices in European Context Annelie Grosse Berlin-Brandenburgische Akademie der Wissenschaften	Gift-Giving, Material Communication and Self-Fashioning in the French Adventures of James V, 1536-1537 Lucy Dean University of Highlands and Islands
	Impolite Refusals: Problematic Gifts from Versailles to Venice Philippa Woodcock, University of the Highlands and Islands	Women's Book Gifting Beyond the Mother-Daughter Relationship S. C. Kaplan University of California, Santa Barbara	Gifts, Pay, or Use? The Bonvillars Family and King Edward I of England Wendy J. Turner, Augusta University	The Politics of Presents: Soft-Power, Gift-Giving, and Royal State Visits in Modern International Diplomacy, 1945-2023 Brandy Jolliff Scott Texas Christian University	The Emperor's New Books: Pedro II of Brazil Between Cultural Diplomacy and Identity-Making Augusto Petter The European University Institute Florence
	Negotiating Neutrality Through the Use of Gifts: Tommaso del Bene's Sojourn as Tuscan Envoy in France, 1690-91 John Condron University of Nottingham	An Accidental Female Network: Diane de Poitiers and Fleurette d'Armagnac as Forgotten Arbiters of Joan of Arc's Memory Deborah McGrady University of Virginia	De la circulation des couronnes des reines de France au XIVe siècle Diane Antille Musée d'art et d'histoire de Neuchâtel	Prince Alfred and the Brokerage of a Dynastic Union Aidan Jones King's College London	H for Henry: Catherine de' Medici and Clement VII's Sartorial Strategy -- A Wedding Gift to Fashion a Medici Princess of France Emily Averiss, Warburg Institute
			From the Dauphin to Henry VI: Gifting and Appropriating Personal Prayer Books as a Declaration of Lancastrian Legitimacy in France Amit Orly, Tel-Aviv University	From Tradition to Strategy: Elizabeth II's Active Role in Cold War Diplomacy Falko Schnicke Johannes Kepler University of Linz	The Power of Black Velvet Royal Gift-Giving and the Creation of the New Elite in 16th-Century Sweden Sofia Ekelund, Stockholm University  indicates an online presenter

	ROOM 1	ROOM 2	ROOM 3	ROOM 4	ROOM 5
9-10:30am	Gifts to and from Asian and European Empires Organizer: Cindy McCreery	The Policies of Gift-Giving of Medieval Queens I: Protocol, Political Communication, and Queenly Identities Chair: Manuela Santos Silva University of Lisbon Organizer: Diana Pelaz Flores Sponsor: MUNARQAS 2.0 Research	Childbearing, Prayers and Reliquary Fever	The Age of Queens Claude de France and Leonor of Austria: Inside and Outside the Realm	Pardon, Asylum, Protection
	Bearing Gifts and Traversing Afar: Embassies and Presents from Asian Monarchs to Emperor Napoleon III of France Robert Aldrich The University of Sydney	"Pro vestra amicitia et vestro bono amore": Gift Exchanges and Politics of the Infantas in the Leon-Castile High Middle Ages Carla Trincado Rodriguez University of Santiago de Compostela	"When she was comen into hir great chamber": The Royal Childbirth Experience as a Location of Female Textile Gift-Giving and Networks Amy Burcher, University of York	The Plague in the Age of Claude de France Brenton Hobart The American University of Paris	The Gift of Pardon: French Kings' "Grace and Mercy" Aleksandra "Sasha" Pfau, Hendrix College
	Queen Victoria's Font: Vying for Spiritual Sovereignty in Mandalay Penny Edwards University of California, Berkeley	"(S)he who does not give what (s)he loves, does not receive what (s)he desires": Eleanor of Provence's Political Communication Through Her Gift-Giving Paula Del Val Vales University of Lincoln	Prayers for an Heir: Catherine de Medicis' Use of Religious Networks and Communities to Remedy Her Childlessness Alexandra Forsyth University of Auckland	Elephant, Rhinoceros, Jaguar: Exchanging Diplomatic Gifts with the King of Portugal, "Lord of the Conquest" Marcos Marinho Fernandes Université d'Aix-Marseille	The Court of Louis XVIII and Gifts: Maintaining a Network, Between Family Ties, Affections and Dependence Mathieu Mensch, University of Strasbourg
	Precious Souvenirs: Royal gifts and Purchases Acquired on Prince Alfred's Tour of Asia, 1868-70 Cindy McCreery The University of Sydney	Unravelling Royal Generosity in 14th-Century Iberia: Gift-Giving Policies of Violant of Bar, Queen of the Crown of Aragon 1387-1396 Lledó Ruiz Domingo, University of Lisbon, University of Spain	"Now I can already assemble a pretty formidable shrine": Relic Fever in 16th-Century Spain Julia Gebke, Austrian Academy of Sciences, Institute for Habsburg and Balkan Studies	From Habsburg With Love: The Gift and Communication Network of Leonor of Austria as Queen of France Maxim Hoffman Ghent University	Gifts of Protection: Negotiating Political Hegemony with the Dutch by Princes of Bali (1846-1908) Nur'ain Binte Taha, Utrecht University
10:30-11am	COFFEE
11am-12:30pm	Gifts from "Independent" States: China, the Indian Princely States and Siam Organizer: Cindy McCreery	The Policies of Gift-Giving of Medieval Queens II: Exchange Networks and Geographies of Favours Chair: Manuela Santos Silva Organizer: Diana Pelaz Flores Sponsor: MUNARQAS 2.0 Research	Gifts Associated with Anne Boleyn	Forms of the Gift: Practices, Symbols and Objects in/at Italian Courts of the Ancient Regime (17th-18th Centuries)	Political and Epistolary Networks in 16th- & 18th-Century Europe
	Special Gifts from a Special Ambassador? Chinese Diplomat Li Jonzhang's Presents for Queen Victoria, 1896 Rachel Peat Underhill Royal Collection Trust, UK	Non Gift-Giving as a Gesture of Diplomatic Offense: The Case of Olga of Kyiv's Embassy in Constantinople in 955 Cristian López Ushakov University of Santiago de Compostela	Gift-Giving and Two Books of Hours That Belonged to Anne Boleyn Kate McCaffrey, Castle Historian and Assistant Curator at Hever Castle	La diplomatie des saveurs : les cadeaux alimentaires de la cour de Savoie dans la deuxième moitié du XVIIe siècle Andrea Merlotti, Centro studi del Consorzio delle Residenze Reali Sabaude	Royal Letter-Writing in the 16th Century: The Edition of the Letters-Missive of Francis I David Potter University of Kent
	Plane Gifts: Aerial Technology as Gifts Between the Indian Princes and the British Crown (1914-1945) Priya Mirza University of Delhi	Building a Cathedral: Royal Donations to the See of Lugo Within the Framework of a Construction Project Celia Vila Fernández University of Santiago de Compostela	The French Psalter of Anne Boleyn: Gift-Giving at the Henrician Court in the 1530s Sophie Bacchus-Waterman University of London	Le don sacré : Côme III et la Toscane dévot (XVIIe-XVIIIe siècles) Vincenzo Lajoia, University of Bologna	Recognition and Rewards: Letters of Recommendation in the Correspondence of the Archdukes Albert and Isabella (1598-1621) Dries Raeymaekers, Radboud University in Nijmegen, the Netherlands
	Tribute Systems and Power Struggles: Local and International Gift Exchange in 19th-Century Siam Susan Conway University of Sussex	The Gifts of the Dukes of Beja to the Churches of the Duchy: Power and Representation in Portugal in the 15th Century Maria Barreto Dávila University of Lisbon	A Gift to Queen Elizabeth Regifted: Reinterpreting the Legend of the Boleyn Cup of Cirencester Jane A. Lawson Editor, The Elizabethan New Year's Gift Exchanges, 1559-1603	"The China": From Feudal Gift to Object of Contention Between the Papacy and the Bourbon Kingdom of Naples in the 18th Century Cinzia Recca, University of Catania	The Return of the Female Courtier: Women's Political Networks Under the Directory (1795-1799) Christine Adams St. Mary's College of Maryland
		The Relational Networks of Mary of Aragon and Castile, Queen of Portugal (r. 1500-1517) Inês Olaia & Ana María Rodrigues University of Lisbon		The Art of Gift-Giving at the Milanese Court of Archduke Ferdinand Habsburg-Lorraine (1771-1796) Elena Riva Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore	Aspects of 18th-Century Diplomacy: Exchanges of Gifts Between the Neapolitan Court and the Ottoman Empire, the Regency of Tripoli and Russia Salvatore Bottari, University of Messina & Mirella Vera Mafra, University of Salerno
12:30-1:30pm	LUNCH
1:30-3:00pm	"All these I gave, seemed to give pleasure": A Comparative Analysis of Intellectual, Colonial, Theatrical, and Religious Contexts	Queenly Gifts in Medieval Iberia and the Visual Communication of Female Power Chair: Elena Paulino-Montero Organizer: Verónica Carla Abenza Soria Sponsor: MARCAM-Las Mujeres y las Artes en la Castilla Medieval. Promoción, Recepción y Capacidades de Acción	Visual and Political Images of Women	Weapon-Related Gift-Giving in Early Modern Europe	Gift-Giving Worldwide

	Mapping Power: Gift Exchanges and Colonial Expansion in the Reigns of Charles II and James II Camila de Koning Historic Royal Palaces & the University of Manchester	Queens, Countesses, and Elite Women from Northern Spain: Female Power and Transcultural Objects Verónica Abeza-Soria Universidad Complutense de Madrid	Eleanor of Provence's Gift-Giving and Political Networks Abby Armstrong, University of Heidelberg	Offerings to Mars: Diplomatic Gifts in Warfare Context on the Acclamation Eve of D. Filipe I of Portugal Milton Pacheco Universidade de Coimbra	Gifts for the Emperor of China: Jesuits and European Embassies at the Ming and Qing Courts in the 16th and 17th Centuries Vittoria Vaccaro Università degli Studi di Catania
	A Champion of Religion? Money for "poore women" and the Performative Gifting of Mary II Holly Marsden Historic Royal Palaces & University of Winchester	Refashioning the "Adulterous" Queen: The Specular Court of Juana de Portugal (+1475) Ángel Fuentes-Ortiz Universidad Complutense de Madrid	Effacing the Printers in Women's Books of Hours Mary Beth Winn State University of New York, Albany	Gifts by the Sword: Fencing Masters, Their Patrons and Gift Exchange in Early Modern Europe Rob Runacres. University of Winchester	"She received my heartfelt effusion very well..." Gift-Giving and the Relationship Between Catherine II and Empress Elizabeth Petrovna Charlotte Valis, University of York
	"Like a highly instructive book": Reading as an Instrument of Intellectual Exchange in the Life of Queen Victoria Gabrielle Fields Historic Royal Palaces, University of Exeter & University of Reading	Iberian Queens and the Preservation of Dynastic Memory through Textiles Maria Judith Feliciano Museo Nacional del Prado	The "Gift" of the Golden Age: An Analysis of Anne Boleyn's 1533 Coronation Procession Kristen Engel University of Connecticut	Gifts for August the Strong: Electoral Saxony and Military Gifts Cathleen Sarti, University of Oxford	Gift Exchange Between the Princess of Joinville and the Emperor of Brazil: Family Affection and Circulation of Objects Between France and Brazil (1843-1848) Enzo Novello, University of Coimbra
3-3:30pm	COFFEE
3:30-5:00pm	French Royal Networks	Queens, Material Culture and Territory: Communication Strategies in Medieval Iberia Chair: Ángel Fuentes-Ortiz Organizer: Elena Paulino-Montero Sponsor: Femarte: Arte, Territorio y Poder en Femenino en la Castilla bajomedieval	Gift-Giving and Cultural Exchange in Early Modern East-Central Europe	Network Building in Italy and Across Europe	Gift-Giving Between Europe and World-Wide Powers
	Le réseau angevin d'Anne de Bretagne au service de sa fille, Renée Michel Nassiet Université d'Angers	Luxury Exchange and Female Nobility Networks: Some Reflections on Queenly Gift-Giving in Medieval Castile Ana Echevarría-Arsuaga Universidad Nacional de Educación a Distancia	Bona Sforza's Female Network in the 16th Century Olga Hajduk, Polish Academy of Sciences	Fateful Peregrinations and the Album of Louise de Coligny Gabiella Scariatta The University of Michigan-Dearborn	Safavid and Mughal Courtly Gift-Giving in Comparative Perspective Ahmad Guliyev Institute of History of Azerbaijan National Academy of Sciences
	The Tragic Deaths of Claude de France's Children and the Processing of Grief Through Poetry Kelly Peebles Clemson University	Objects, Letters, People: Materializing Royal Initials in the Iberian Peninsula Neus Serra-Vives Universitat de les Illes Balears	The King's Spindly Legs: Henry of Valois, Crimean Tatars, Diplomacy and Gift-Giving, 574 Katarzyna Kosior Northumbria University, UK	Keeping It in the Family: Dynastic Identities and Cultural Exchanges Between France, Lorraine and Tuscany, 1570-1670 Jonathan Spangler Manchester Metropolitan University	"a snake stone ... presented her Maty ... from the King of Siam": Catherine of Braganza, Diplomatic Gifts, and Networks of Knowledge Susannah Lyon-Whaley University of Auckland
	Entourage savoyzien à la cour de Claude de France Daniela Cereia Archivio di Stato Torino	The Long-Lived Resonance of a Royal Nun: Visual and Territorial Communication Strategies of Constanza de Castilla (+1478) Maria Teresa Chicote-Pompanin Universidad Complutense de Madrid	Louise Marie Gonzaga de Nevers and Maria Kazimiera d'Arquien Sobieska: Two Foreign Queens on the Polish Throne and the Practice of Gifts as a Political Tool Jarosław Pietrzak Pedagogical University of Kraków	Gift-Exchanging, Networking and How the Infanta Francisca Josefa Maintained Her Influence at Court Margarida Póvoa University of Lisbon	Gifts Diplomacy and Its Success in the Moroccan Court During the Reign of Sultan Moulay Ismail (1672-1727 AD) Fatima Rhorchi, Royal Studies Network
		Eucharistic Devotion and Female Gifts in the Court of Isabel I (1474-1504) Elena Paulino-Montero Universidad Nacional de Educación a Distancia
5-5:15pm	BREAK	 indicates an online presenter
5:15-6:15pm	Keynote: Claude de France dans la correspondance de Lucrece Borgia : échanges et enjeux Guy Le Thiec Université d'Aix-Marseille
18:15	WINE RECEPTION

08:45	Departure of buses for Châteaudun
10:45	Réception à Châteaudun Visite du Château
12:15-13:15	Déjeuner dans la salle Saint André
13:30-15:00	Claude de France: Political and Cultural Image
	Une reine des prunes Elisabeth Latremoliere Conservateur adjoint, Château de Blois
	La politique de Claude de France Aubrée David-Chapy Université Paris-Sorbonne
	Family Matters: Claude's Relations and the Marots Cynthia J. Brown University of California Santa Barbara
15:00-15:30	BREAK
15:30-17:00	Claude de France Inside and Outside the Realm
	"Au commandement de la royne": Anne de Graille and Women's Literary Networks in the Entourage of Claude of France Elizabeth L'Estrange University of Birmingham
	"Chief de feminine grace": Claude de France and Her Influence on Anne Boleyn Tracy Adams University of Auckland
	Claude de France: The (In)Visibility of a Short-Lived Queen Kathleen Wilson-Chevalier American University of Paris
17:15	Départ pour Tours
19:45	Dîner: Café/Brasserie l'Univers